

American Army of Occupation Entering Germany

ALTHOUGH THE ANCIENT CITY OF AIX-LA-CHAPELLE, THE FORMER CAPITAL OF CHARLEMAGNE, WAS OCCUPIED MAINLY BY THE BELGIANS, PART OF THE AMERICAN ARMY ARE HERE SEEN PASSING THROUGH ON THE WAY TO COBLENZ.

AMERICAN SOLDIERS, HEADED BY THEIR BANDS, MARCHING THROUGH THE KAISER PLATZ IN TREVES, DEC. 1, 1918. TREVES WAS THE FIRST GERMAN CITY OF IMPORTANCE OCCUPIED BY AMERICAN TROOPS.

(© Underwood & Underwood.)

THE GUNS OF THE VICTORS RUMBLING THROUGH THE STREETS OF TREVES, GERMANY. THERE WERE NO DEMONSTRATIONS ON THE PART OF THE GERMANS, WHO RECEIVED THEIR CONQUERORS IN SILENCE.

(© Underwood & Underwood.)